From a catechetical instruction by Saint Cyril of Jerusalem, bishop:

Acknowledge your sins in a time of God's favor.

"If there is any slave of sin here present, he should at once prepare himself through faith for the rebirth into freedom that makes us God's adopted children. He should lay aside the wretchedness of slavery to sin, and put on the joyful slavery of the Lord, so as to be counted worthy to inherit the kingdom of heaven. By acknowledging your sins strip away your former self, seduced as it is by destructive desires, and put on the new self, renewed in the likeness of its Creator. Through faith receive the pledge of the Holy Spirit, so that you may be welcomed into the everlasting dwelling places. Draw near, to be marked with the supernatural seal, so that you may be easily recognized by your master. Become a member of Christ's holy and spiritual flock, so that one day you may be set apart on his right hand, and so gain the life prepared as your inheritance.

Those whose sins still cling to them like a goatskin will stand on his left hand because they did not approach Christ's fountain of rebirth to receive God's grace. By rebirth I mean, not rebirth of the body, but the spiritual rebirth of the soul. Our bodies are brought into being by parents who can be seen, but our souls are reborn through faith: the Spirit breathes where he wills. At the end, if you are made worthy, you may hear the words: "Well done, good and faithful servant", when, that is, you are found with no stain of hypocrisy on your conscience.

If anyone here present is thinking of putting God's grace to the test, he is deceiving himself, and he does not understand the nature of things. You are but a man; there is one who searches out men's thoughts and hearts. You must keep you soul innocent and free from deceit.

The present is a time for the acknowledgment of sins. Acknowledge what you have done, in word or deed, by night or day. Acknowledge you sins at a time of God's favor, and on the day of salvation you will receive the treasures of heaven.

Wash yourself clean, so that you may hold a richer store of grace. Sins are forgiven equally for all, but communion in the Holy Spirit is given in the measure of each one's faith. If you have done little work you will receive little; if you have achieved a great deal, great will be your reward. The race you are running is for your own advantage; look after your own interests. If you have a grudge against anyone, forgive him. You are drawing near to receive forgiveness for your own sins; you must yourself forgive those who have sinned against you."

PETER'S PENCE APPEAL: Each year this annual collection is held in parishes across the country to support the relief work of our Holy Father. This collection funds emergency relief assistance to those throughout the world who suffer from war, oppression and natural disasters. Through your generosity and the generosity of people across our country we give a powerful witness of love to give hope to those in need. "THANK YOU" for your generosity to this appeal!

MARRIAGE ENCOUNTER WEEKEND: These retreats are designed to help married couples communicate more intimately with one another in order to deepen and enrich their relationship. An atmosphere is created where the couple can concentrate exclusively on one another in a private and confidential environment. A series of presentations that touch on many aspects of marriage is given by three couples and a priest. After each presentation the couple has time in the privacy of their own room for personal sharing using the communication techniques learned. The weekend starts at 8:00PM on Friday and runs until 4:00PM on Sunday. (No group discussions.)
