From a homily by Pope Paul VI:

We proclaim Christ to the whole world!

"Not to preach the Gospel would be my undoing, for Christ himself sent me as his apostle and witness. The more remote, the more difficult the assignment, the more my love of God spurs me on. In am bound to proclaim that Jesus is Christ, the Son of the living God. Because of him we come to know the God we cannot see. He is the first born of all creation, in him all things find their being. Man's teacher and redeemer, he was born for us, died for us, and for us he rose from the dead. All things, all history converges in Christ. A man of sorrow and hope, he knows us and loves us. As our friend he stays by us throughout our lives; at the end of time he will come to be our judge; but we also know that he will be the complete fulfillment of our lives and our great happiness for all eternity.

I can never cease to speak of Christ for him our truth and our light; he is the way, the truth and the life. He is our bread, our source of living water who allays our hunger and satisfies our thirst. He is our shepherd, our leader, our ideal, our comforter and our brother.

He is like us but more perfectly human, simple, poor, humble, and yet, while burdened with work, he is more patient. He spoke on our behalf, he worked miracles, and he founded a new kingdom; in it the poor are happy; peace is the foundation of a life in common; where the pure of heart and those who mourn are uplifted and comforted; the hungry find justice; sinners are forgiven; and all discover that they are brothers.

The image I present to you is the image of Jesus Christ. A Christians you share his name; he has already made most of you his own so once again I repeat his name to you Christians and I proclaim to all men: Jesus Christ is the beginning and the end, the alpha and the omega, Lord of the new universe, the great hidden key to human history and the part we play in it. He is the mediator - the bridge, if you will -between heaven and earth. Above all he is the Son of man, more perfect than a man, being also the Son of God, eternal and infinite. He is the son of Mary his mother on earth, more blessed than any woman. She is our mother in the spiritual communion of the mystical body. Jesus Christ I preach day in and day out. His name I would see echo to the ends of the earth."

MISSION COOPERATIVE: This appeal is a major source of funding for missionaries, and the funds collected help them provide food and housing, educate the poor and orphans, provide medical care, build churches, schools, clinics, catechetical training centers, dig wells, educate candidates for the priesthood and religious formation along with many other needs in their diocese.
